

ADMINISTRATIVE POLICY NO. 611

INSTRUCTIONAL RESOURCES

Prairie South School Division authorizes the purchase of instructional resources to meet and satisfy the vision, mission, guiding principles and goals of the school division.

PROCEDURES

1. General

- a. Classroom instructional resources are to be selected from those recommended by Saskatchewan Learning.
- b. Materials which are an integrated part of the core program for elementary students are supplied by the school division.
- c. In general, materials used for instructional purposes in sciences and practical and applied arts are to be supplied to the student. However, in some areas where students are using consumable materials or supplies, a fee may apply. Refer to Administrative Policy 417 – Student Fees.

2. Selection of Resources

- a. Professional staff is to provide students with a wide variety of materials at varying levels of difficulty with diversity of appeal and varying points of view that are consistent with the beliefs and goals of the school division.
- b. While the selection of learning resources may involve many people – administrators, teachers, students, community persons – the responsibility for selection and purchase rests with the principal and curriculum consultants.

- c. Materials selected for the school library resource centres are to be consistent with the following guidelines:
 - i. They support and are consistent with educational goals of the province, division, individual school, and specific courses.
 - ii. They are appropriate for the subject area, as well as age and ability of the student for whom they are intended.
 - iii. They meet high standards of quality in factual content, accuracy, balance, integrity, and presentation.

3. Challenged Resources

- a. Any resident or employee of the school division may formally challenge learning resources used in division schools.
- b. The challenge must be on the basis of appropriateness.
- c. Requests for reconsideration of materials may be informal or formal.
 - i. INFORMAL

The school receiving a complaint regarding a learning resource is to try to resolve the issue informally:

- The principal or other appropriate staff is to explain to the questioner the school's selection procedure, criteria, and qualifications of those persons selecting the resource.
- The principal or other appropriate staff is to explain the particular place the questioned resource occupies in the education program, its intended usefulness, and additional information regarding its use. The principal or other appropriate staff may also refer the questioner to someone who can identify and explain the use of the resource.
- If the questioner wishes to file a formal challenge, a Request for Reconsideration of Learning Resources form is to be given to the person.

ii. FORMAL

All formal objections to learning resources are to be made on the Request for Reconsideration of Learning Resources form:

- The form is to be filed with the principal.
- The principal is to submit the form to the Superintendent of Curriculum and Learning.
- The Superintendent is to submit the form to a reconsideration committee composed of one member of the division staff chosen by the Superintendent, a member of the school teaching staff, a teacher librarian, and one Central Administrative Council member.
- The reconsideration committee may choose to consult division support staff and/or community persons with related professional knowledge.
- The reconsideration committee is to review the challenged resource and judge whether it conforms to the guidelines for selection.
- The reconsideration committee is to:
 - Examine the challenged resource.
 - Determine the professional acceptance by reading critical reviews of the resource.
 - Weigh values and faults and form opinions based on the material as a whole rather than on passages or sections taken out of context.
 - Discuss the challenged resource in context to the educational program.
 - Prepare a written report.
- The written report is to be discussed with the individual questioner if requested.
- The written report is to be retained by the Superintendent, with copies forwarded to the principal and questioner.
- The decision of the reconsideration committee is binding on the individual school.
- Notwithstanding this procedure, the questioner has the right to appeal any decision of the reconsideration committee to the Board of Education as the final review panel.

Approved Sept. 1, 2006