

PURCHASE OF SERVICES FOR STUDENTS

Background

Prairie South School Division contracts for educational services and pays tuition fees for students when it is not feasible or practical to provide the services within the Division.

Procedures

The Superintendent of Learning may approve the purchase of services from other institutions and school divisions when Prairie South School Division is unable to provide a specific program or service for a student with intensive needs. Such service or program is to be consistent with those provided in accordance with Ministry of Education regulations and policies.

Parents or guardians of home-based education students may apply to the Superintendent of Operations in charge of home-based education for assistance in the purchase of distance education courses in accordance with Administrative Procedure 270 – Home Based Education.
