UNIVERSITY OF REGINA:

- The U of R has created a handy Admissions Checklist for students to use once they receive conditional acceptance into their university.
- SAMS \(Student Awards Management System\) allows students to search and apply online for the U of R scholarships and awards. The application deadline is March 15.
- Student Awards and Financial Aid Scholarship Workshops will be held on Mar. 4 and Mar. 8. These workshops will help students navigate through SAMS (Student Awards Management System). Parents are encouraged to attend. You can also view instructions on how to use SAMS (documents and YouTube videos) on the website. Please contact Scholarships for more info.
- If guidance counsellors, principals or teachers wish to have someone from the U of R host a scholarship application workshop for a group of students, contact Kayla Schmaus to book.
- You can apply for Education all year long and may study on a part-time or full-time basis. As well, this year, most students will not have to complete Teacher Education Application Profile (TEAP). Exceptions are Le Bac and after degree (BEAD) programs.
- Applications for fall 2021 are open for on-campus housing. Feel free to take a virtual tour of housing options. Call 306-585-5450 or email housing.services@uregina.ca for more info.
- U of R students are encouraged to become familiar with the Student Awards & Financial Aid Office. They are there to help you with your investment into your future university goals. Feel free to call them at 306-585-4591, email at Student Loans or Scholarships and Awards.
- Living-Learning Communities (LLCs) is a group of students that get together in residence, because they share similar interests, values, and academic programs. These groups receive tutoring, workshops and wellness supports, attend social events, and connect with staff. You are considered for this when you apply for residence.
- Living on campus offers so many benefits for a first-year student: the best location, 24-hour support, countless community building activities and much more. A unique perk that many new students don't know about is Choose Your Room. First-year students who apply for housing before March 15 are invited to use their room selection software to choose their exact apartment and bedroom from a list of available rooms. The room selection process takes place in March, and students will be provided with designated time slots to log in and select their room of choice. The earlier they apply, the better chance they will have at an earlier time slot. Students can easily coordinate living with friends, simply by logging in and completing their selection at the same time, or by listing a roommate request in their application.
